Bettors at Gravesend, How- tory in the Derby yesterday has greatly ever, Down on Winners.

H. P. Whitney's Stamina Demonold Filly in Training.

New York, June 4 .- Five favorites were beaten at Gravesend to-day, but there was a play on all of the winners, just the same, at liberal odds. .The most puzzling race was the Patchogue Stakes, at about six furlengs. Jacobite, 9 to 5 favorite, was good enough to run third. James B. Brady broke in front, but Park View went after him with a great turn of speed, and her. fairly ran him off his feet on the far turn. Then Park View weakened in the run home, and the Patchogue Stable's entry, Don Enrique, a 15 to 1 shot, got up to within half a length of Park View That H. P. Whitney's Stamina is t best three-year-old filly in training v further demonstrated when she gallop off with the Gazelle Stakes. She w quoted at 9 to 20, and E. Dugan wait with her while Anonyma and Half So ereign led to the far turn. Then Star ina breezed to the front, and won in gallop by four lengths, with Anonyn Overconfidence on the part of Duga caused the defeat of Nasturtia in the first race. Koerner hugged the rail the way with Gladys Louise, and be the favorite half a length.

Malacca, 2 to 1 favorite in the steepl chase, was pulled up because his sadd girth broke. Noblesse Oblige, 8 to beat Mark Gumbert, second choice, han ily by a length and a half.

Rosimiro won the fifth race by thr parts of a length from King Cobalt, whi Occidental got the last by a clever rice from Shreve. The attendance was about 12,000, at the track fast.
